RATIFICATION OCTOBER 28

Great Crowd of Democrats Expected in Ocala that Evening to Hear Congressman Clark

We are going to have a grand ratification rally of Marion county democrats in Ocala on Thursday evening, Oct. 28. All democrats, ladies and gentlemen, from all over the county, are requested to be present. Frank Clark, our representative in Congress, will be present and make us an address, and other good speakers will be in evidence. But the great idea is for democrats to meet and become acquainted, have a good time, stir up enthusiasm among all present and send them home to get out the democratic vote.

DEMOCRATS TAKE NOTICE

Following are the names on the ballot you will vote Tuesday, Nov. 2. The names of the democratic candidates are marked with an X. Commit them to memory. You need not expect the ticket to look like the following, for it won't. This list will help you only if you study it closely. You must memorize the names and carry them in your heads. You must not carry the following list nor any other memorandum into the voting booth; in fact, you had better not carry it even to the polls:

SWANSON RECOVERED FROM HIS SICKNESS
(Associated Press)
Roanoke, Oct. 19.—Senator Swanson was able to leave today for Washington, after a collapse with a heart attack while addressing a meeting. Senator Swanson suffered from a similar attack in the Senate in April.

BORN TO THE SADDLE
(Associated Press)
Senatobia, Miss., Oct. 19.—Mrs. Mary Solomon, aged 93, won the first prize at the county fair here today, for the most accomplished horsewoman. She rode like a girl.

GOV. ALLEN AFTER THE GAMBLERS

Kansas Man Wants to Know if Chicago Board of Trade has Caused Recent Slumps

(Associated Press)
Topeka, Oct. 17.—Governor Allen today said he would press government investigation of the Chicago Board of Trade and if the recent slumps in cotton and wheat are shown to be due to speculation and gambling, he will urge abolition of the board.

WILL BE HERE NOVEMBER 3 OR 4
Members of the Railroad Commission Will Hear Arguments on Silver Springs Case

The Marion County Board of Trade received the following telegram this afternoon from the state railroad commission:

"One of the commissioners will endeavor to meet you November 3rd or 4th, regarding Silver Springs depot. Will advise definite date later. Have requested Seaboard not to take action until commissioners have investigated."

Opposition to Mr. Carmichael's plan has developed among a number of our citizens, who prefer the status quo. The best thing to do will be for all interested to be present at the meeting and state their views of the case.

FARMERS HAVE BEEN CHEATED

Two and a Half Billion Dollars Subtracted from the Value of Their Products

(Associated Press)
Washington, Oct. 19.—Vice President Marshall and Secretary of Agriculture Meredith addressed the American Bankers Association convention today. Mr. Meredith said the shrinkage of farm products would result in the farmers receiving two billion, five hundred million dollars less than they would have received last year. He estimated the fall in cotton prices amounted to a third of a billion. He said the American people must help the farmers secure credit to supply the nation's need for food. Marshall did not speak.

FORT KING

Fort King, Oct. 19.—Mrs. J. V. Fowler returned last Saturday from a very pleasant trip to various parts of Ohio, Kentucky and West Virginia, where he visited friends and relatives. Mrs. C. G. Parker, who has been very ill, is much improved, we are glad to say.

The ladies' sewing circle met at the home of Mrs. J. W. Coshaw last Wednesday afternoon. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. E. Baxter.

Miss Effie Stephens spent last week with her sister, Mrs. A. J. Simmons of Ocala.

Mr. J. A. Milton of Hawthorne was visiting friends here last week. Mr. J. A. Freymuth of Newberry was visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Clayton last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Vaughn and children of Ocala spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Clayton.

MEETING OF THE Y. W. A.

The Y. W. A. of the Baptist church held a most interesting and instructive meeting last night. Mrs. C. L. West was the hostess, entertaining at her home, and Mrs. Floyd was the leader of the instructive missionary program that took place. At the conclusion Mrs. West served sandwiches and tea.

WOMAN'S DEPARTMENT WILL BE IN CAPABLE HANDS

The fact that Mrs. J. H. Brinson has consented to act as superintendent of the woman's department is good news to the friends of the Marion County Fair. Mrs. Brinson has a wonderful capacity for detail work and her work in this department has won for her hundreds of friends among both the exhibitors and the patrons of the fair. Every exhibit in her department was displayed to its best advantage, and this year with the assistance of the efficient secretaries, Mrs. Lewis Yonce, Mrs. Stirling Hooper, Mrs. H. W. Tucker, Mrs. F. W. Cook and Mrs. F. K. Vandervort, exhibitors are assured their exhibits will receive the same consideration that made this department of the fair such a wonderful success last year.
